European Union's directives

Member States shall grant full access to the education system to all minors granted refugee or subsidiary protection status, under the same conditions as nationals.

DIRECTIVE 2004/83/EC, EUROPEAN COUNCIL

Access to the education: not postponed for more than three months from the date of application.

Member States shall not withdraw secondary education for the sole reason that the minor has reached the age of majority.

Minor children of applicants and to applicants who are minors: access to the education for so long as an expulsion measure against them or their parents is not actually enforced.

DIRECTIVE 2013/33 EU, EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

Education in the 2020 PACT

Education as key area to:

- more inclusive society
- fight poverty
- gender equality

Strategic measures:

- recognition of previous qualifications
- specific training for teachers
- language learning programs
- specific programs for unaccompanied minors who arrive past the age of compulsory schooling

EU fundings: full use to achieve these goals

The Case of Greece: some data

11,500 refugee and migrant children

Were enrolled in Greek schools by December 2018

Out of the 5,935 assessed school-age children 62%

Were enrolled in greek schools, regardless their migratory status

In terms of gender breakdown

66% girls and 67% boys

Education in Greek Constitution

Art 16 of Greek Constitution

- Education is a basic mission of the State;
- Education is mandatory for the first nine years.
- All Greeks have the right to free education at all levels in public educational institutions.

Article 16 of the Greek Constitution and implementing legislation have raised legal issues as the ones before the ECHR:

The case of Sampanis v. Greece

The case of Lavidia and Others v. Greece

European Committee on Social Rights

's decision, issued on 23 May 2019,

requires the government to immediately provide migrant children with appropriate shelter, food, water, education and medical care; to remove unaccompanied migrant children from detention and from Reception and Identification Centers (RICs) at the borders.

This decision is in response to a collective complaint brought before the Committee by International Commission of Jurists (ICJ) and European Council for Refugees and Exiles (ECRE), alleging systemic violations of migrant children's rights on mainland Greece and the North Eastern Aegean islands.

The role of the NGOs in education: Mazí and Still I Rise

Mazí is a school and a safe place for 11-17 years old refugees who live in the Samos hotspot in Greece.

The Situation in Samos

1 doctor, 6900 people

50% women and children

320 unaccompanied minors

6900+ people live in a refugee camp built for 648.

Still I Rise was born to address a specific need: to educate and support minors living in the Samos hotspot, the refugee camp on the island of Samos, Greece.
